

Isabel Hodge

Isabel Hodge is the Executive Director for the United States International Council on Disabilities and Vice President of Disabled Peoples' International North America Caribbean. Prior to joining USICD, she was a Senior Program Analyst at the U.S. Department of Defense Office of Special Needs and a Exceptional Family Member Program Specialist for Headquarters U.S. Marine Corps. Isabel is a U.S. Marine Corps veteran.

Isabel completed a Federal detail to the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services' Administration on Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities (AIDD). While at AIDD, she co-authored the Developmental Disabilities Act regulations and authored their 2012-2017 Strategic Framework.

Isabel also serves on the Board of Directors for Wheelchairs for Kids International, is a Joint Advisory Board Member for American University's Institute on Disability and Public Policy, and is a member of the Enabled Children's Initiative Advisory Council which is a non-profit organization based in Afghanistan.